

THE PhD

PROJECT

My PhD Project Reflections Journal

After each session, please take a few moments to reflect on the session and make note of key takeaways, information provided and how it will help your understanding and awareness of the Ph.D. process.

We hope this will help you in your journey.

Session: Fri., Mar. 24th, 12:00am - 12:30 pm. The PhD Project Overview Presenter: Blane Ruschak, President of The PhD Project; Neil Bosland, AACSB & Chair, PhD Project Board of Director

1. Takeaways from this session.

2. How can you use the information provided in this session to figure out your next steps?

3. How did this session change your understanding of the big picture related to Ph.D. programs and academic careers?

4. How can you use the information provided in this session to find a Ph.D. program that is right for you?

5. How did this session improve your awareness of how you can utilize The PhD Project to feel more at-ease while pursuing your Ph.D. program?

Session: Fri., Mar. 24th, 12:20pm - 12:45 pm.

KEYNOTE ADDRESS; Dr. Jeffery Robinson, Rutgers University

1. List your takeaways from this session.

2. How can you use the information provided in this session to figure out your next steps?

3. How did this session change your understanding of the big picture related to Ph.D. programs and academic careers?

4. How can you use the information provided in this session to find a Ph.D. program that is right for you?

5. How did this session improve your awareness of how you can utilize The PhD Project to feel more at-ease while pursuing your Ph.D. program?

Session: Fri., Mar. 24th 12:45 – 1:45 p.m. PLENARY I: The Ph.D. Lifecycle: Setting the Stage: Dr. Michael Clement, University of Texas-Austin; Dr. dt ogilvie, Rochester Institute of Technology

1. List your takeaways from this session.

2. How can you use the information provided in this session to figure out your next steps?

3. How did this session change your understanding of the big picture related to Ph.D. programs and academic careers?

4. How can you use the information provided in this session to find a Ph.D. program that is right for you?

5. How did this session improve your awareness of how you can utilize The PhD Project to feel more at-ease while pursuing your Ph.D. program?

Session: Fri., Mar. 24th 1:45 p.m. – 2:45 p.m. PLENARY II: Secrets of a Successful Applicant:
Dr. Maura Scott, Florida State University; Dr. Jose A. Rosa, Iowa State University

1. List your takeaways from this session.

2. How can you use the information provided in this session to figure out your next steps?

3. How did this session change your understanding of the big picture related to Ph.D. programs and academic careers?

4. How can you use the information provided in this session to find a Ph.D. program that is right for you?

5. How did this session improve your awareness of how you can utilize The PhD Project to feel more at-ease while pursuing your Ph.D. program?

Session: Fri., Mar. 24th 3:00 -4:00 p.m. PLENARY III: The Ph.D. Lifecycle: The Doctoral Student

1. List your takeaways from this session.

2. How can you use the information provided in this session to figure out your next steps?

3. How did this session change your understanding of the big picture related to Ph.D. programs and academic careers?

4. How can you use the information provided in this session to find a Ph.D. program that is right for you?

5. How did this session improve your awareness of how you can utilize The PhD Project to feel more at-ease while pursuing your Ph.D. program?

Session: Fri., Mar. 24th 4:30 - 5:30p.m. and Sat., Mar. 25th 8:15 - 9:15a.m.: Breakout Sessions by Discipline (refer to agenda for list of panelists)

1. List your takeaways from this session.

2. How can you use the information provided in this session to figure out your next steps?

3. How did this session change your understanding of the big picture related to Ph.D. programs and academic careers?

4. How can you use the information provided in this session to find a Ph.D. program that is right for you?

5. How did this session improve your awareness of how you can utilize The PhD Project to feel more at-ease while pursuing your Ph.D. program?

Session: Fri., Mar. 24th 7:00-9:30 p.m.: University/Ph.D. Programs Fair

1. List your takeaways from this session.

2. How can you use the information provided in this session to figure out your next steps?

3. How did this session change your understanding of the big picture related to Ph.D. programs and academic careers?

4. How can you use the information provided in this session to find a Ph.D. program that is right for you?

5. How did this session improve your awareness of how you can utilize The PhD Project to feel more at-ease while pursuing your Ph.D. program?

Session: Sat., March 25th, 9:30 am – 10:30 am. Alternate Paths within Academia; Karen Osterheld, Dr. Paquita Davis-Friday, Dr. Katrice Branner, Blane Ruschak

1. List your takeaways from this session.

2. How can you use the information provided in this session to figure out your next steps?

3. How did this session change your understanding of the big picture related to Ph.D. programs and academic careers?

4. How can you use the information provided in this session to find a Ph.D. program that is right for you?

5. How did this session improve your awareness of how you can utilize The PhD Project to feel more at-ease while pursuing your Ph.D. program?

Session: Sat., March 25th, 9:30 am – 10:30 am. Real Talk: What I Wish I Knew!

1. List your takeaways from this session.

2. How can you use the information provided in this session to figure out your next steps?

3. How did this session change your understanding of the big picture related to Ph.D. programs and academic careers?

4. How can you use the information provided in this session to find a Ph.D. program that is right for you?

5. How did this session improve your awareness of how you can utilize The PhD Project to feel more at-ease while pursuing your Ph.D. program?

Session: Sat., March 25th 10:45-12:00p.m. : Balancing the Doctoral Program & Family

1. List your takeaways from this session.

2. How can you use the information provided in this session to figure out your next steps?

3. How did this session change your understanding of the big picture related to Ph.D. programs and academic careers?

4. How can you use the information provided in this session to find a Ph.D. program that is right for you?

5. How did this session improve your awareness of how you can utilize The PhD Project to feel more at-ease while pursuing your Ph.D. program?

Session: Sat., March 25th 12:00p.m.- 1:00p.m. PLENARY IV: The Ph.D. Lifecycle: Investment or Sacrifice: Dr. Patricia Martinez, Loyola Marymount University, Dr. Randy Bradley, University of Tennessee; Dr. Helen Brown Liburd, Rutgers University; Dr. Laura Trevino, University of Texas-El Paso

1. List your takeaways from this session.

2. How can you use the information provided in this session to figure out your next steps?

3. How did this session change your understanding of the big picture related to Ph.D. programs and academic careers?

4. How can you use the information provided in this session to find a Ph.D. program that is right for you?

5. How did this session improve your awareness of how you can utilize The PhD Project to feel more at-ease while pursuing your Ph.D. program?

Session: Wed., March 29th, 5:30 – 8:00 p.m.: VIRTUAL SESSTION: Preparing Your Way to GMAT® Success!

1. List your takeaways from this session.

2. How can you use the information provided in this session to figure out your next steps?

3. How did this session change your understanding of the big picture related to Ph.D. programs and academic careers?

4. How can you use the information provided in this session to find a Ph.D. program that is right for you?

5. How did this session improve your awareness of how you can utilize The PhD Project to feel more at-ease while pursuing your Ph.D. program?
